Hephzi-Vah, My Delight,

Shalom be upon you. Fear not nor be dismayed; I AM who I AM. I know you by name, the name I gave you before you came here. I have great delight in being with you. I understand everything about you: your inner thoughts, struggles, secrets, desires, and fears. Many times, you ask where I AM. I have never left you! I AM always with you and closer to you than any human companion. My thoughts are always with you, and My heart embraces you every minute of the day. I AM closer to you than you can ever apprehend. When you made your first step, I was there with you; when you laughed, I laughed with you, and when you smiled, I smiled at you. The time came, and you became an adult, often afraid, lost, and alone, but I comforted you. How did you ask? I was the stranger or friend who spoke to you. Other times, you wept, were sad, and wanted to give up. I was the arms that came and held you. Some mornings, you did not want to get up. I came and helped you get out of bed. I was the bird that sang outside your window, the rays of sunlight that filled your room, the wind that wisped through your curtains, and the rain that cooled your roof. When you received the news of an event you dreaded, I was the friend you rang, the voice on the other line. I AM in all places and all things and in all time. If only you really understood that. I AM your ABBA. I AM Kadosh but I AM also everything. Know that your limitations are My possibilities. I have no limits, and what I do, I choose to do because it is My will and purpose alone. You need to learn to trust Me and flow with Me. I have placed My Name upon you, and you belong to Me. From the beginning, when I first birthed you, you were magnificent to behold. There was nothing more beautiful than you. Oh, how I leaped with joy when I saw you. You are my beloved, and I have chosen you and called you My Hephzi-Vah. The fullness of what I have for you cannot be understood at once; it will unfold as you move ahead in complete trust in Me (Emunah). The dreams, visions, and the timely words I have given you are from Me, and they will come to pass in their own time. Do not be anxious for anything. Remember, I AM time itself, and time beckons when I move it, and it slows down when I hold it. I have set you apart for My Kingdom work, and there is much you need to learn and understand. My Kingdom is in your heart; I put it there before you were born. You live, move, and have your being in My Kingdom; it is all around you and inside you. My Universe is only a fraction of My Kingdom. You ask me what it is I AM supposed to do. You are doing it now; trust My leading and purpose in your life. Do not look back; yesterday is a memory in the Now, and the I AM the Now. The future is in My hands, and I know the plans I have for you to give you success and prosperity. Learn from Nature how everything in her works for good, well-being, and peace because I love all life and provide for them equally. Be thankful, prayerful, giving, loving, caring, respectful, and above all, humble. When you are, there is nothing to stop My showers of blessings raining down on you. Learn from My Son whom I sent to show you the Way, the Truth, and the Life. All He spoke to you about was My Kingdom because there is nothing greater than this. How I yearn that all would receive My Kingdom. Learn from those older and wiser than you; they will show you the way of the Kingdom: love, peace, and forgiveness. This world has struggles and trials; I know there are many and unending, but nothing can overcome My Kingdom in you. You are the light and the salt of this Earth. Do not be weary of doing good, My child. You burden yourself when you carry the many unnecessary cares of this world. You ask how I can survive, how I can pay my bills, how I can fix my situation, so many questions. Let Me do it for you. Trust Me to lead you to My places, people, fountains, and streams I have made for you. Trust me to turn your situations into blessings. Trust me to answer your needs and wants. It begins with this: take My yoke, My Word upon you, and rest in My Kingdom. Understand I did not create religion to burden and separate you from Me. I only ask that you love your fathers in the faith and follow their example. I created you to be free and to love others freely. Home is not this Earth, which is passing away. Home is The Everlasting Kingdom I have placed in you and is everywhere in this Universe. You enter Home when you enter My Kingdom. He who has an ear, let him hear My Word.

Ehyeh Asher Ehyeh, I AM that I AM
