

PART ONE

THE SEVEN YEARS OF PLENTY. Starting in 2025, the world is poised to shift into a higher spiritual gear. By that time, the majority of elections in various countries will have concluded, setting the stage for significant global changes. But before we delve into the specifics of what lies ahead, it is essential to grasp this foundational truth: YHWH IS SOVEREIGN OVER ALL THINGS. The Scriptures, particularly the TaNaK, make it abundantly clear that YHWH has absolute control over life and death. He kills and makes alive, He heals and wounds, He raises up and brings down, He makes straight and makes crooked. The deceived and the deceiver—both are His. Don't just take my word for it; read these passages for yourself: Devarim (Deuteronomy) 32:39: "See now that I, even I, am He, and there is no Elohim with Me: I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of My hand. For I lift up My hand to the heavens, and say, I live forever." Iyov (Job) 12:16: "With Him is strength and wisdom: the deceived and the deceiver are His." Yeshayahu (Isaiah) 54:16: "See, I have created the blacksmith that blows the coals in the fire, and that brings forth an instrument for his work; and I have also created the spoiler that destroys." Daniyel (Daniel) 2:21: "And He changes the times and the seasons: He removes kings, and sets up kings; He gives wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to those who have understanding." Koheleth (Ecclesiastes) 7:13-14: "Consider the work of Elohim: for who can make straight what He has made crooked? In the day of prosperity, be full of joy, but in the day of adversity, consider: Elohim has appointed one as well as the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him." When we understand this truth, it becomes clear that YHWH is both the source of life and death and order and chaos. As such, Yeshayahu reminds us that we should fear Him alone (Isaiah 8:13). Ha-Satan, despite all the misconceptions, is not equal to YHWH. He is not a force in opposition to Elohim; instead, he is simply an instrument used by YHWH to fulfill His will. The Supreme Elohim has no equal. For many, this understanding may be difficult, especially when we face events in our lives that seem beyond comprehension—moments when it feels as if the Almighty (El Shaddai) has lost control. In those times, many of us have cried out for relief, mercy, or justice, only to find that the answer doesn't come immediately, or at all, in the way we expect. However, it is important to understand that what we perceive as silence or inaction is not a sign that YHWH has lost control. We simply do not have the full understanding of what is truly happening behind the veil of our limited perceptions. Everything in life is orchestrated according to His divine purpose, and while we may not see the entire picture, we can trust that His ultimate goal for us is one of peace, hope, and a future. As Yirmeyahu (Jeremiah) 29:11 assures us: "For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says YHWH: thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope." EVERYTHING HAPPENING TODAY IS DETERMINED FOR OUR GOOD. The current events unfolding around the world—wars, political upheavals, natural disasters—are not random or chaotic. They are part of a divine plan that has been determined for our good. As the prophet Daniel often stated, "It is determined..." (Daniel (Daniyel) 9:24-27). While we may mourn the tragic loss of life in regions like Russia, Ukraine, Israel, Palestine, and Iran, and we feel the pain of millions who have lost homes and livelihoods, we must understand that death is not the end but the beginning of life. Everything that is destroyed will ultimately be rebuilt. The entire Universe operates on dynamic cycles—everything is recycled and renewed. This is not a matter of randomness or chance but a reflection of how YHWH has ordained all things to exist. In response to this reality, we have a choice: we can either align our mindset with the laws and principles that YHWH has created or remain in the darkness of misunderstanding for the rest of our lives. What follows is a series of revelations I have received from YHWH regarding the events that will unfold over the next seven years. These events are DETERMINED and will come to pass within the time frame mentioned or soon after. They are primarily positive events, and the negative ones have been determined for our good. These events are only a fraction of what will occur, and as the time arises, I shall relate more episodes:

PART TWO

Common Wealth Resurgence:

The Common Wealth of Nations under King Charles will increase in stature as the King takes a more active role as its head. The Common Wealth Nations will find their strength and influence in unity.

America's Resurgence:

America will not only become great again but greater than before. America will resume its position as the dominant superpower of the World. Inflation and prices in America and in many countries will fall as fuel and transport costs decrease.

Technological Advancements:

America will upgrade its war technology, incorporating advanced alien technology that is far ahead of what other nations possess.

Political Reformation:

The corrupt people in the US Government will be rooted out and replaced with God-fearing individuals. America's stand against corruption will inspire other nations to take similar actions. A global movement against corruption will emerge.

Environmental Consequences:

America's drive to reduce energy costs through fracking will, unfortunately, accelerate global warming. Also, many countries will not give up burning fossil fuels for electricity.

Shifting Alliances:

America will begin normalizing economic and financial ties with Russia and members of the BRICS alliance to maintain the dollar as the World Reserve Currency.

The Federal Reserve:

The United States will reevaluate the role of the Federal Reserve and will move toward its eventual dismantling.

United Nations and Global Governance:

The United Nations and its agencies like the WHO will face pressure to clean up elements of the Cabal in its operations or risk losing members and funding.

BRICS Growth:

China and Russia will deepen their collaboration across multiple sectors, further bridging technological and military gaps between them. BRICS is working towards establishing a global currency that will challenge the dominance of the US dollar while continuing to expand its influence as an economic and military force. While BRICS may surpass NATO in size, it won't necessarily eclipse its overall strength. Positioned as a major global player, BRICS aspires to rival the United Nations in international influence, fostering trust and partnerships with numerous nations.

Global Peace and Military Expansion:

While a World War will be avoided, regional conflicts will temporarily subside as global leaders shift their focus toward growth, prosperity, commerce, and military rearmament. A massive arms race will unfold, with nations arming themselves to levels unprecedented in history.

The Cabal's Retreat:

The Cabal and Deep State will retreat further into the shadows, though they will not abandon their long-term goals. Their population control agenda remains unchanged, and they will continue targeting global communications, leveraging significant control over the internet and media. However, their media influence will face greater scrutiny, and their corporate holdings will expand under pressure from the rise of another global superpower.

The Rise of Elon Musk:

The Cabal's power will be increasingly challenged by Elon Musk, who will rise to become a global giant and authority. Elon's various companies, which I have collectively called the EM Corporation, will become a global force that aligns with many Western and Eastern governments.

Technological Innovation:

The EM Corporation will develop cutting-edge computers, networks, and databases that rival the combined power of Google, Microsoft, and Facebook. It will create a global satellite mobile network, making many existing services obsolete. With leading advancements in artificial intelligence (AI) and robotics, EM Corporation will build a powerful army of advanced robots and machines. Additionally, the corporation will launch its own global bank and currency, becoming self-sustaining. This marks the rise of a new superpower, with wealth and assets on par with financial giants like BlackRock, Blackstone, and Vanguard.

New Frontiers:

The EM Corporation will explore deep-sea colonization and mining and send humans to the Moon and Mars. These advancements will be closely monitored and controlled by angels who currently police this planet. They will venture into areas of medicine and biometrics to improve and advance life.

Human Conscious Evolution and Transcendence:

Elon Musk will become the first person to transcend physical form by uploading his consciousness to a superfast quantum computer, achieving a sentient presence in the digital realm. His goal is to be omnipresent, existing everywhere online.

The Revelation of the Universe:

The long-standing mystery of whether we are alone in the Universe will be finally confirmed. Alien contact will become frequent as we progress to a more peaceful state.

Environmental and Dietary Shifts:

Global pollution will reach critical levels, sparking environmental alarms. The frequency of natural disasters will increase in various parts of the world. The world will slowly transition from a meat-based diet to a vegetable-based diet due to environmental concerns and sustainability issues.

Health Crisis:

The global health crisis caused by the COVID-19 vaccines will continue to worsen as more people die from the long-term effects, and the vaccine companies will be investigated and punished. The harm agricultural and food companies have done to humans and the environment will be investigated and stopped. The majority of our food will become wholesome and clean over this period.

Political Turmoil:

Assassination attempts on world leaders and corporate figures will rise as the evil elements in this World come under exposure and judgment. Many nations will see uprisings to root out the corruption in their countries. The media will no longer hide the evil.

Prophecy and Spiritual Movements:

Eliyahu (Elijah) will appear, heralding the coming of the Messiah. Eliyahu will rebuild the Royal House of Dawid and set up the Tabernacle of Dawid with its numerous global branches. As a result, the Earth will come under the canopy of YHWH's power and presence. The Torah movement will gain global momentum as more people recognize the truth and abandon the fables and lies. Membership in spiritual movements (those seeking truth outside of traditional religion) will blossom, and many religions will grow. Signs and wonders will appear in the heavens, signaling the events of the time. The start of the last one thousand years of our earthly journey has begun. In 2025, we will see the start of seven years of plenty— time to sow and reap and a time to invest in the Kingdom of Elohim.
